Philip,

I am writing to you from Omsk at the Greenonovich Family Reunion. Had it not been for this once in a lifetime opportunity to visit Putin's Northern Paradise and see my famous walrus-riding relatives, I surely would have shelled out $50 US to attend what no doubt will be one of the best shindigs Jericho ever hosted. So if anyone asks, you can tell them that wish all of you the best and they can find me on Facebook. Ira Greene (teacher), Brooklyn, NY

Please wish everyone a terrific reunion and that I am there in spirit. Every time I get an email from you, I am so jealous that I will be driving 7 hours back and forth to taking my daughter to camp!
Enjoy

Sorry I can't be there to join in all the festivities and reliving some incredibly special times. As my kids go through similar experiences, it is amazing how much our youthful decisions and experiences come into play as we go forward in life.

I had a wonderful time at the (35-36th??) reunion a few years back but disappointed that the timing does not work out this time. I'm committed to the next one! I hope all is well with many and if you have a chance to contact me via email, please send me a note. I'd love to catch up!

I still very fondly remember my dear White Birch days and of course all of our junior and high school times.

Enjoy the weekend. I am jealous!

Phil...great idea! Thanks

JEFF FEDER ('72) Commack, New York

Happy 40th To All Of You-Just wishing we were all "40" - have a great time at the reunion. Just know I am here with you in spirit. You all are lucky that I did not show up...I did not want to scare you all into thinking it was actually me you were looking at. You all might have thought it was Halloween! Unfortunately my wife, son and I are going to be at a wedding this weekend in N.J.

If we are all fortunate enough to be able to attend another reunion in the future, it would be so nice to see and speak to you all at that time. JERICO HIGH SCHOOL GRADS ARE THE BEST-WE WERE ALL GIFTED TO HAVE HAD THE PLEASURE TO ENJOY IT THERE!!!

I miss not being able to go this year and every other year. I live in Madison, Wisconsin, and don't have money. My heart is there I am volunteer for Tammy Baldwin for. I was busy with the recall that we lost. As I said I am working to elect Tammy for senator Our one democrat senator Herb is leaving . We are against a lot of money and 4 running against her in that other party primary We are a battle state and Romney is going to come alot. Usually the demoract for president comes to Madison where we have a big university UW and a massive rally each elction for president who is the democrat in the fall. I work at 2-1-1 as a community specialist there is a 2-1-1- in Jericho I looked it up. A free number we have a data base and folks mostly poor call us for information like as afood pantrysin the zip code nearthem rent aid stuff such as that. Ilove it. My love always to Jericho.

Hi I'm there in spirit but not in person because I heard there is a greater chance a person will be hurt by their own furniture than by a terrorist, so I am shopping at IKEA just prior to the invasion the government has scheduled. Anyway, thanks for all your hard work and hello to everyone. Have a great time and does anyone have an allen wrench?

Phil: Thanks for your ongoing + clever encouragement to join u and the Class of '72's Jayhawks @ this w/e's reunion. The bad news is that I won't be able to attend. The good news is that after 23 years of suffering the indignity of living in the vapid land of NJ, my husband + I bought a cottage in Copake, so that we could (once again) have a residence in NY state. This coming w/e, we will be up there, beginning to make this handyman's special inhabitable. Wishing u a fun-filled evening, with the proper mixture of nostalgia and renewed friendships. Thinking of you with much appreciation for all that you do for so many.

would've loved to attend Phil, but NHL draft is that weekend and my beat is the Florida Panthers so it would be tough to cover drunk! say hi to everyone esp. debbie nathel, debbie mcloughlin debbie armstrong and all the debbies i've loved before!!!!

Harvey Fialkov ('72), Plantation, FL

Hey Phil,

Just wanted to drop a line saying how much I'd love to be there, but life situations, etc., etc. just don't warrant a trip down there these days. We are fine, but starting our own performance/education/consulting business - check our website!! (had to say that) - and preparing to start the college thing with our two boys, Ben first, then Corin, so we have neither the finances nor the time for extra trips. I really enjoyed the two reunions I did manage to get to, and when life settles down a bit am sure I'll make it to more. Thanks so much for all you do to make these happen and please give my love to everyone.

Hi Phillip-

What is up with that class of of 1972? Don't they have, jobs, families, surgery, mortgage payments or rent, illness, tax bills, cleaning, lawn, weeds, automobile repairs and empty wallets? I just "celebrated" my 59th birthday last Saturday and I could certainly use a drink with those partying underclassmen! I hope somewhere along the line I have the courtesy to

RSVP that it would not be coming this time. I have been in contact, however, with everyone who reunited at the other Phil Bashe's bashes. Have fun! Regards to all. Say hi to Justin and Patti!— Janet Rhoads Leslie ('71), Homosassa, FL

Hi, Philip,

Well, I'm really not here, but my spirit is. I know I'm a half a day late for a message, but maybe you can squeeze me in. (This would be the only way I could squeeze into any thing.)

Murf

THE MESSAGE:

My dearest "formers,"

So, you're here at this amazing 40th reunion. You are brave, my dears. I hope the years, the ups and downs of being "just yourself," the dreams realized, the dreams allowed to fade, and most importantly the loves have all gathered to help create the person I hoped you would be.

With love and best wishes,
