Disc 2

You’re at a sock hop circa the mid-50s, even though some of you were just zygotes. Imagine you’re in the gym, girls in crinoline skirts, boys in dungarees and white T-shirts. The teachers circulate through the teeming crowd of teenagers with sawed-off rulers, intoning, “Seven inches apart, please. Seven inches apart ...” Then the music comes on, and you put down your punch and rush out onto the dance floor.

1. “At the Hop,” Danny and the Juniors
2. “Shake, Rattle and Roll,” Bill Haley and His Comets
3. “Red Hot,” Billy Lee Riley and His Little Green Men
4. “Jailhouse Rock,” Elvis Presley

17. "Bang a Gong (Get It On)," T. Rex
18. "I Want Candy," Strangeloves
19. "I Heard It Through the Grapevine," Gladys Knight and the Pips

Disc 3

Now you're at a discotheque in Swinging London, the boys looking fab, gear, and not the least bit grotty in Cuban heels and collarless jackets, the girls in Mary Quant, looking like they stepped right out of a Yardley ad. Then the music comes on, and you put down your punch and hurry out onto the dance floor ...

1. "I Saw Her Standing There," Beatles
2. "Glad All Over," Dave Clark 5
3. "I'm Telling You Now," Freddie and the Dreamers"
4. "You Really Got Me," Kinks

15. "Help Me Rhonda," Beach Boys
16. "When Smokey Sings," ABC
17. "Tears of a Clown," Smokey Robinson and the Miracles
18. "The Girl Can't Help It," Little Richard

Disc 4

Now you and your old lady/old man are at Woodstock, in the midst of a driving, torrential rain, and ass deep in mud. You're picking at the your communal bowl of brown rice that your naked neighbor just nodded out into. But despite the elements, you're having the time of your life (you keep telling yourself, over and over)! Then Sly and the Family hit the stage, and you set down your acid-spiked punch and start dancing in the mud!

1. "I Want to Take You Higher," Sly and the Family Stone
2. "Going Up the Country," Canned Heat
3. "Volunteers," Jefferson Airplane
4. "Let's Make a Deal Theme"(raffle 3)

13. "The Twist," Chubby Checker
14. "Stone Free," Jimi Hendrix

Disc 5

It's the mid-seventies, and you're down at the disco. Everyone's swathed in polyester. The disco ball is reflecting light in your eyes. And then the music comes on, and you've just gotta boogie down. You spill your punch on Truman Capote, apologize, then knock over Halston and Liza as you make your way to the dance floor ...

1. "Disco Inferno," Trammps
2. "Lady Marmalade," Labelle
3. "YMCA," Village People
4. "Let's Make a Deal Theme Song" (raffle 4)

12. "Subterranean Homesick Blues," Bob Dylan
13. "Jive Talkin'," Bee Gees

Eighties and Beyond: By the 1980s, you're largely clueless about what's happening in popular culture. Maybe, if you have teenagers, you're partially aware, but, then, they're probably not talking to you. So we're going to lump together the '90s and whatever the hell they call the first decade of the twenty-first century ...

14. "Vertigo," U2
15. "Hey Ya," Outkast
16. "Rockin' in the Free World," Neil Young
17. "Are You Gonna Be My Girl?" Jet
18. "Let's Make a Deal Theme Song" (raffle 5)
